

Olá!

- My name is Ana Rolo and I am a professor at the Colleague of Business Administration (ESCE) of the Polytechnic Institute of Setúbal (IPS), in Portugal.
- My work area is Management, and my main areas of interest are Innovation Management, Entrepreneurship and E-Business. I like to get involved in new projects and challenges.
- In my free time, I love gardening, walking in nature with my dogs and doing some DIY (recycling and transforming old things – Circular Economy).
