

Olá!

- My name is Helena Simões and I am a teacher at the College of Education (ESE) of the Polytechnic Institute of Setúbal (IPS), in Portugal.
- My field of work is science education and my main areas of interest are formal and informal science education, health education and sustainability.
- I enjoy being involved in new projects and experiences. In my free time I love nature contact and connection.
- I am looking forward to work together to tackle our challenge.
